

Little Learners Newsletter 25th November 2016

Children in Need

Little Learners raised over £68.00 for this great charity; thank you to everyone who made donations. The children have been asking when Pudsey bear will come back for another visit!

Christmas Nativities

"We're having a party...."

Have you heard your Little Learner singing along?! Please click on the link below, under 'Key Information' you will find the music to go along with the words and help you (and your Little Learner!) learn our songs.

If your child is a 'party goer', we hope there are some smart shirts and pretty dresses at the ready! If your child has a costume part, please do ask a member of the Nursery Crew if you would like any assistance at all.

Tulip Photography

Tulip Photography are visiting next Tuesday 29th November.

If you would like your Little Learner to wear something specific for the photos, please do send them already dressed in it. We look forward to seeing lots of smiling faces!

If you have a pre-booked appointment on the day, please arrive at the school reception. We will be unable to accept parents for photography appointments through the Nursery entrance.

Threadworm

We have been notified that one of our Little Learners has had a case of threadworm. They have been successfully treated of course but please do follow the link for more information and remain vigilant to any signs or symptoms.

Competition closes on Thursday 1st December and winner will be chosen at random from all entries.

Good luck!

Christmas Fair

It is tonight! We hope to see you there for lots of festive fun and games. Don't forget the car park will be a lot busier than usual for a Friday night.
