

Little Learners Newsletter 9th September 2016

activity book with Crayola pens and a free half day session at Nursery – well done Jenna!

Prizes for our Little Learners

Thank you to all the super creative entries into our Little Learners decorate the cake competition. All of the entries were fabulous which made it very tricky to choose!

- 1st prize – Dexter French (Learn to write numbers flashcards and pen)
- 2nd prize – Ava Plumley (colouring book and crayons)
- 3rd prizes – Isabel Thomas and Matilda Davies (giant playground chalk)

Second hand uniform sale

We have two hoodies available for second hand purchase at £4.00 each (two purple). If you would like to take a look please see the school office. Any money received will of course be passed back to the parent selling the items.

New members of the Nursery Crew

We welcomed Abby as a full time Nursery Practitioner last week. We hope you will have the opportunity to say hello to Abby in her first couple of weeks. Emily Poole also had her first day in Nursery last week. Emily is going to be working on a Wednesday and Thursday and she is also studying for her Early Years Foundation degree.

Due to Emily Hodder starting her access to university course and us welcoming two new members of the Nursery Crew, there have been some slight changes. Abby and Emily will be taking on many new Little Learners and our existing Little Learners have been distributed between Amy, Anna, Emily and Katie.

We will endeavour to inform all parents who will experience a change in key person but please do check the list on the parent's board in Nursery when you have a moment. It can be found above the signing in and out register.

New meal arrangements

Thank you for your patience as we welcome in the new term and our new funded meal options. As a reminder, unless you see a PL (packed lunch) or PT (packed tea) next to your child's session on the register we will be providing their food. Snacks remain included in ALL sessions. It does seem it will take a little time to get the options just right but please do highlight any discrepancies to us and we will sort them as soon as we can.
