A Champion of Hope When Desmond Tutu was growing up in South Africa people of different colour had to do everything separately. Desmond Tutu spent years fighting for justice for all the people of South Africa, so that all the people of that country would be treated equally. When apartheid came to an end he said, 'Look at your hands – different colours representing different people. You are the rainbow people of God. As you remember, the rainbow in the Bible is the sign of peace and hope.'	St Anne's CEVA Primary School Values for Life TERM 1 - 2014 HOPE	 "Learn to Love...Love to learn" We welcome new children to our school and look forward to watching them grow with us.

Many children lost their parents to this illness. By 1870 George had set up homes in Bristol where he offered hope to children who had no warm home to live in, no food and no education. Even now, his work goes on to care for children in Bristol whose parents cannot look after them.
